

2020 SUMMER CAMPS for YOUTH

Summer

June 8–July 24

Petite Players Camp (Ages 4–6) $100 This camp is designed to teach younger students how to use their imaginations to create characters and work with their classmates to tell stories.	Session 1   June 8–12   9–11 a.m. Session 2   June 22–26   9–11 a.m.
Junior Players Camp (Ages 7–10) $225 This week-long drama adventure will lead students through fun and engaging theatre games that teach effective movement and speech while cultivating creativity and imagination. Students will apply these new skills as they create an original piece of theatre to be shared at the end of camp.	June 8–12   9 a.m.–4 p.m. Full Day—Bring a sack lunch
Youth Players Camp (Ages 11–13) $225 In this full-week drama camp, participants will be led through fun and engaging theatre games that will help them learn to speak effectively while using their imagination. Students will create an original theatre piece to be shared at the end of camp.	June 8–12   9 a.m.–4 p.m. Full Day—Bring a sack lunch
Musical Theatre Camp (Ages 7–12) $225 In this week-long intensive, students will focus on acting, singing and dancing to create an original piece of theatre to be shared at the end of camp.	Session 1   June 15–19   9 a.m.–4 p.m. Session 2   June 22–26   9 a.m.–4 p.m. Full Day—Bring a sack lunch
Players Cabaret (Ages 13–18) $225 This camp encourages students to develop their own unique performance style through one-on-one training with vocal coaches, spoken word artists and directors. Each participant will get to perform a solo piece at the culminating cabaret-style performance as well as learn group numbers. Students will learn to collaborate as performers to create their own night of story and song in the Howard Drew Theatre. Space is limited	July 6–10   9 a.m.–4 p.m. Full Day—Bring a sack lunch
Players Production (Ages 13–18) $350 Players Production is a two-week intensive that immerses students in the art of theatre. Students work with professional directors, fight choreographers and designers in a unique and fast-paced training opportunity that culminates in an evening production for family and friends in the Howard Drew Theatre.	July 13–24   9 a.m.–4 p.m. Full Day—Bring a sack lunch